

Nicolas Lockerman, Director/Producer/Lead Editor

Nicolas Lockerman, has traveled the world creating compelling moving and still images for a variety of TV Networks, commercial clients and feature films, both narrative and documentary. He has directed and shot promo spots for such corporate giants as ATI Specialty Steel, Maybelline New York, Garnier, Dodge RAM, Forbes, The Economist, FoxSports, NFL Films, Versus, Dicks Sporting National Geographic and many more. In addition, he is an Emmy award winning commercial director with over 150 regional commercials produced under his belt. From the jungles of Costa Rica to the overwhelming beauty of Ireland to the gothic architecture of Budapest, he has had the good fortune to see the wonders of the planet as he has honed the arts of photography, storytelling and filmmaking. These experiences have shaped an intrepid artistic vision and provided a solid creative foundation that he draws upon for every project, no matter what the size and scope.

Nicolas has recently moved his production headquarters into the Telephone Building on Butler St. in Lawrenceville. This new space offers clients and collaborators state of the art post-production capabilities, including motion graphics development and a separate full sound studio for voice over and music recording and development. This space supports efficiently keeping all aspects of production (principal photography, editing, motion graphics, audio engineering) under one roof. It also provides a comfortable viewing environment for clients during various stages of post-production.
